

Attachment No. 1 to the Workplace Rules for the Ethics Committee for Scientific Research conducted with the Participation of People at Poznan University of Technology (KEBNUL)

date of application and file number (to be given by the Committee)

APPLICATION

to the Ethics Committee for Scientific Research conducted with the Participation of People at Poznan University of Technology on expressing an opinion on a research project / scientific research

1. Applicant (provide the title, academic degree, name, surname, specialization, place of employment, status of the Applicant in the context of the right to submit an application – according to the KEBNUL Workplace Rules):
2. Persons conducting the research:
3. Title (subject) of the research project / scientific research:
4. Proposed date of commencement and completion of the research project / scientific research:
5. The purpose of the scientific research, along with the justification and the expected way of making the results of the research project / scientific research available:
6. Description of the research method:
7. Characteristics of the research group and recruitment rules (description of the research group, selection method, size and method of payment or rewards for participants, one should attach a template of the questionnaire and/or information (announcement) on the basis of which the recruitment is held):
8. Expected method of anonymizing the obtained data (in particular personal data of research participants):
9. Expected method of data storage:
10. Description of potential sources of risk arising from the research procedure and selection of the research group:
11. Sources of research funding (if applicable):
12. Bibliography (indicate the most important resources related to the research project / scientific research):
13. Formal aspects of the procedure for obtaining consent to participate in a research project / scientific research:
  - a. Information for potential participants of the scientific research (according to the template constituting Attachment No. 2 to the Rules);
  - b. a form of voluntary and informed consent of the research participants or their legal guardians / representatives (according to the template constituting Attachment No. 3 or 4 to the Rules).

14. The Applicant declares, to the best of his/her knowledge, that on the basis of the data collected during the implementation of the research
  - a. it is possible to clearly identify the respondents (Attachment No. 3 to the KEBNUL Rules is required)*,
  - b. it is not possible to clearly identify the respondents*.

*delete or cross out as appropriate

Other attachments to the Application:

1. A statement on previous and/or parallel applications related to the research project submitted for evaluation or approval and information on decisions that have been issued.

.....
date and signature of the Applicant